Colloidal Oatmeal Sensi Bar (Light Exfoliation)

As natural as they come, this soap body bar features GMO-free colloidal oatmeal to soothe, soften and increase moisture in the skin. The Sensi bar was made for ultra-sensitive skin, without any nut butters or scents. Enjoy a calming exfoliation, irritant free!

Scent: Scent-free

Recommended use: Daily. Great for anyone with skin or scent sensitivities.

Love 'n Lavender Colloidal Oatmeal Bar (Light Exfoliation)

A special form of oatmeal that helps soothe, soften and increase moisture in the skin, colloidal oatmeal from Bountiful is GMO-free. This deeply penetrating and moisturizing soap body bar, combines colloidal oatmeal with natural oils and butters, and the calming scent of lavender to gently exfoliate and reduce itching caused by dry skin.

Scent: Lavender (medium to lightly scented)

Recommended use: Daily.

Enriching Exfoliation with Oatmeal and Coconut Milk (Medium Exfoliation)

Enjoy brighter, more refined and vibrant skin by incorporating exfoliation into your regular routine. This soap body bar uses steel cut oats to provide a stimulating mid-level exfoliation. Your skin is rehydrated with natural oils, butters and the additional treatment of moisture-boosting coconut milk and honey.

Scent: Vanilla (light)

Recommended use: You can easily use this bar a couple times a week, especially if you have normal to oily skin.

Oatmeal Extreme Exfoliating! (Strong Exfoliation)

Looking for a “full out” exfoliation experience? This traditional oatmeal soap body bar packs a punch. Combining oatmeal with natural oils and butters, there’s nothing like a powerful exfoliation bar that whisks away dry patches to reveal fresh, renewed softness.

Scent: Vanilla (light)

Recommended use: You can easily use this bar a couple times a week, especially if you have normal to oily skin.
